TOWNLEY SPEECH DURING THE WAR

JACKSON, Minn., June 26.—Long extracts from addresses by A. C. Townley at meetings at New Ulm, Minn., in 1917, and 1918, were read into the record in district court here this afternoon at the trial of President Townley of the National Non-Partisan League, and his former lieutenant, Joseph Gilbert, who are charged with conspiracy to commit disloyalty.

The Townley addresses were made at New Ulm, June 22, 1917, and February 20, 1918. The report of the first address as printed in the New Ulm Journal was read by Philip Leisch, publisher of the Journal, and the second address was read by Alexander Seifert, a court reporter, from Springfield, Minn., who testified that he copied the speech in shorthand. The reports of the speeches were admitted as evidence.

The defendants' attorneys did not question the accuracy of either of them as read in court. In fact, they read into the record long sections of the speeches after the prosecuting attorney introduced sections which he claimed were part and upon which the disloyalty charges were based.

In both addresses, as read in court, Townley discussed the war and devoted most of his time to consideration of economic issues and to assailing "war profiteers." Townley charged in both speeches that in 1915 "the profits of war corporations were four million dollars," and he demanded that the wealth of the nation should be conscripted as well as the men.

The portion of Townley's second speech at New Ulm which received the most attention from the attorneys follows:

"You hear them say all over the country that this is not a time for the people to be agitated. This is not a time for you to think. This is a time when you ought to be perfectly quiet. Don't wake up and look around, for if you look around, you are sure to see something. That is what they mean. If your boy refuses or neglects to register for war service, do these gentlemen keep quiet, do they say then that this is a time when we ought to have no trouble? Oh, no. They will raise hell to see that your boys go to war. And see, now, gentlemen, when these men likewise refuse, neglect or forget to turn these four million dollars a year war profits we have a right to raise hell until they turn it over.

"Blood and flesh alone cannot win the war. It takes money to back the boys. They have gone to win the war and they have got our money. Those American people, these farmers have heard the calls of the government to make a sacrifice to win this war against autocracy. We have heard them call and you have heard it. Your boys have gone in response to the call. You are making every sacrifice required of you. Your boys are making every sacrifice required of them. We heard them call and we do stand behind the government. We do stand behind the president.

"Now we demand that you gentlemen also stand behind the government stand behind the president with your money. They say they do. If you will watch them, if you will look around, if you will study the gentlemen who are making these profits, the beef trust, the steel trust, the sugar trust, the food speculators, you will find that they say they do stand behind the president. I guess they do, but they are too damned far behind."

NORTH OGDEN NOTES

(Special Correspondence.)
NORTH OGDEN, June 26.—Thomas E. McKay, president of the Ogden stake and his first counselor, John Halls, met with the people of the ward Sunday evening and completed the organization of the bishopric of the ward, made necessary by the departure May 16 of David E. Randall, first counselor to Bishop Frederick Barker for a mission to the British mission.

Lorenzo Ward, second counselor, was moved up to first place and David Gilbert Randall was sustained as second counselor. He is a son of David E. and Eliza A. Chadwick Randall and a young man of unimpeachable character and has seen service all along the line of ward activities, including a mission to the northwestern states from January 5, 1915, to April 1, 1917, and was taken from the position of first assistant to William A. Montgomery in the superintendency of the North Ogden Sunday school for his place in the ward bishopric. He was married September 12, 1918, to Miss Una Chatelain.

NORTH DAKOTA COUNTING VOTES ON SEVEN LAWS

FARGO, N. D., June 27.—With the vote of the larger cities apparently against the seven laws submitted to the North Dakota voters for a referendum ballot, interest centered today in the returns from the rural districts. The laws passed by the Non-Partisan League majority in the state legislature last winter and referred to the electors yesterday constituted the state industrial program of the Non-Partisan League.

Four hundred and twenty-seven precincts out of 2556 precincts in the state, reported this morning, give 12,649 votes for the non-Partisan League laws and 21,586 votes against the laws. This is largely a city vote and represents about one-fourth of the total vote cast.

The rural vote is running at least two to one for the league laws, which, if maintained, will give the Non-Partisan laws a majority of fifteen thousand.

A joint program is being arranged for a welcome home reception for next Friday evening for two of our young men, Earl Chadwick and Harold Storey, recently returned from war service in France, and for Miss Rhoda Pearl Jones, who returned June 16 from a mission to the northern states of 23 months' duration.

Elder George H. Halls was the principal speaker at the sacrament meeting here Sunday and his daughter favored the audience with a well-rendered reading and William H. Orton rendered a song in the language of the Tahitians among whom he had labored over four years as a missionary.

John M. Bailey, George A. Lyon, J. William Gibson, Victoria Marshall, Olive Chadwick and Olive Randall, with power to call to their aid all others necessary have been intrusted with the work of providing a genuine celebration of the nation's birthday, July 4th.

John Cyrus Bailey of Montpelier, Idaho, a former resident of this place, was a visitor at our ward last Sunday. James Hyrum Blaylock of Logan was visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Blaylock Sunday and returned to his post as manager of the Woolworth store at that place.

The program of the high priests' annual day in this ward for July 13 is being worked by the committee, James Storey, F. W. Ellis, E. J. Marshall and William A. Ellis, and their aids and judging from former similar occasions it will not be one whit behind the other quorums that have had their "day."

The many friends of Arthur G. Berrett, ward chorister, very pleasantly reminded him Saturday evening that he had arrived at the 40th milestone in his journey in this mortal sphere and an excellent social evening was enjoyed by all present. A similar time was enjoyed the same evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Storey in honor of the marriage June 18th of their son James Frederick to Miss Blanche Smith of Ogden.

Abraham Earl Chadwick, recently returned from France, will address joint session of the Mutuals of the ward Sunday evening, on some of his experiences on the Rhine.

Annual conference of the Ward Primary association is scheduled to be held in the ward next Sunday at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woodfield, Mrs. Annie Daniels and Mrs. Elizabeth Williams are in Salt Lake City this week.

The new text-book, "Gospel Doctrine" adopted for classes of the higher priesthood will be taken up next Sunday morning.

Clarence V. Orton, formerly of this place, has sold out his farm in Huntsville and will relocate in North Ogden upon the property formerly occupied by his father, the late Joseph Orton.

Willard Scaling Down Weight for Champ Contest

TOLEDO, June 27.—Less than fifty pounds instead of the heralded sixty or seventy pounds will be the difference in weight between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey when they climb into the ring at Bayview Park a week from today to box for the world's heavyweight championship.

The champion weighed himself before starting his workout yesterday and to the surprise of boxing experts tipped the beam at 243 1/2 pounds. This is six and a quarter pounds below the weight he made for his championship match with Jack Johnson. A week ago the champion scaled 248 pounds.

Dempsey scaled 197 pounds yesterday and Jimmy DeForest, trainer of the challenger, said today that he expects to send his charge into the ring weighing about that figure.

ELKS TO TAKE CHARGE OF JULY FOURTH FETE

SALT LAKE, June 26.—The Elks' club will have complete charge of the coming Fourth of July celebration to be held not only in commemoration of the independence of the United States, but also as a jubilee in honor of the supremacy of democracy throughout the world over autocracy, according to plans made at the regular meeting of the lodge last night. Exalted Ruler E. Hugh Miller appointed a civic committee to co-operate with the Elks in carrying on an active campaign for the occasion. A permanent Elk committee was also appointed to take charge of the active work of arranging elaborate programs for the celebration.

GREAT APPEAL RECORD
CHICAGO, June 26.—One of the largest appeal records ever filed in the United States circuit court of appeals was that presented today in the case of Victor Berger and four other Socialist leaders, who were convicted of violating the espionage act. The record contains six thousand pages.

POSITIONS AWAIT 70 PER CENT OF DISCHARGED MEN

NEW YORK, June 27.—Seventy per cent of the soldiers discharged since the armistice, having positions awaiting them, Colonel Arthur Woods, assistant to the secretary of war, who is in charge of obtaining employment for discharged service men, announced today.

"Enlisted men are being discharged at the rate of from 60,000 to 70,000 a week," Colonel Woods said, "and only a comparatively small percentage are unable either to return to their old positions or to obtain new positions through the various agencies."

Colonel Woods again emphasized the fact that one of the difficulties is the unusual demand among discharged service men for clerical labor, and the reluctance of the average man to perform farm labor.
